

Shelby Amateur Radio Club (SARC) Hamfest Policy

All dealers, exhibitors, outside tailgate participants and others are to abide by the following rules and procedures as listed below by the SARC Hamfest & Cleveland County Fairgrounds:

All dealers, exhibitors and outside tailgate participants are fully responsible for collecting and reporting all federal, state and local taxes.

Smoking is not permitted inside the facility buildings or within ten feet of any building entry which is utilized for the Hamfest event.

The sale of inappropriate items such as knives, guns, explosives, dangerous chemicals, unlicensed software, videotapes, pornographic materials and other items that are inappropriate shall not be exhibited or offered for sale. This includes any radio equipment that is not compliant with FCC Rules and Regulations.

Animals are allowed under leash, as well as properly marked service animals for disabled patrons or for medical alert purposes. The individual shall be responsible for the actions of their animals and shall not hold the SARC Hamfest liable for any actions done by their animal.

Signage or other items are not to be attached by any damaging means at the facility for advertising or display, (this includes tape and adhesives that may leave a residue) unless approved by the SARC Hamfest staff.

Electrical cords must be properly secured and if crossing a pedestrian walkway shall be marked with approved safety / caution tape, so as to prevent a trip hazard or other injury. You as occupant are responsible for your actions that affect the safety of your space.

The SARC Hamfest shall not be held responsible for any warranty, fitness of purpose or the condition of items sold by either the inside dealers, exhibitors or those in the outside flea market area. Furthermore, the SARC Hamfest shall not be held liable for any physical injury to participants at the event for injuries sustained when circumstances not under the direct control of the SARC hamfest are the proximate cause of any injuries. (First Aid items for minor injuries are available at the hamfest office.)

All dealers, exhibitors, outside flea market participants and those setting up, shall not leave unsold merchandise, boxes, and other trash upon their departure.

For any Prize Drawings and Door Prizes, claimants must present their ticket stub to the SARC Hamfest Staff member to claim the winning prize.

Any disturbances that violate City, County, State or Federal Law or the above mentioned hamfest policy, will be asked to leave by the SARC Hamfest staff and shall forfeit any prizes or refund. Any failure to abide by the hamfest staffs decisions will be immediately turned over to the Shelby Police or Cleveland County Sheriff for further action.
